

A.P. Soul

A.P. Soul, born Aphiwe Ngwenya and raised in the 031 (Durban), in her own words says she sings for three reasons, "to tell my story, I sing for happiness and love, and practice my calling of music that God has simply given to me to give upon others." A singer, songwriter and actress, A.P. Soul is a rare multi-talented artist.

Coming from a family of singers and music lovers A.P. Soul fell in love with music at the tender age of 4 years acquiring a taste of music from both her parents, her mother having deep connections with Soul and Jazz and her father who listened to reggae, soul and blues. A.P. Soul draws her musical inspiration from the likes of K Michelle and Jill Scott, and one can hear the influence of Tamar and the Beyoncé.

A.P soul is the voice of Aphiwe, what she is too afraid to say Soul will say for her. She's an advocate for truth, for the youth, women and survivors. She is fearless and transforms on stage, she will touch on risky conversations and her truth is her truth she hides nothing.

She tells her story, she conforms nothing and demands nothing from no one but respect on her work and her name Soul is Golden. Mother Nature awaits for Soul!
